A LETTER FROM OUR DIRECTOR

Dear Peter Paul Family,

It's been another incredible year, and as we reflect on all our successes from the past year, we thank you for your support. Thanks to you, we had a year of incredible growth, expanding to three new locations at George Mason, Chimborazo and Bellevue elementary schools. Now, Peter Paul has the capacity to serve 400 students in grades 2-12 across the East End of Richmond. Other highlights from the year included our annual Rise & Shine Breakfast with an address from Peter Paul alum and staff member Isaiah Hardy, hosting more than 50 family events for parents in the Promise Family Network, and eliminating all of our debt from the original building, among many more!

As we look back on a wonderful year, we also celebrate a major milestone — the 40 year anniversary of Peter Paul. When founder John Coleman started Peter Paul, he didn't set out to change the world, but what grew from his vision was a legacy that continues and thrives to this day. The organization's 40 year history includes incredible testimonies of strength, vulnerability, and service to the East End community. We look forward to being with you on October 26 as we celebrate the past and look forward to an exciting future at Peter Paul!

Thank you for partnering with us to achieve our mission to Educate the Child, Engage the Family, and Empower the Community. Please read on for more highlights and stories from the year.

In gratitude,

Damon Jiggetts

EDUCATE THE CHILD

Peter Paul's Youth Program, comprised of the After School Learning Immersion Program and the Summer Promise, supported an unduplicated 332 East End students in grades 2-12, more students than we have ever served before!

AFTER SCHOOL LEARNING IMMERSION PROGRAM

The After School Learning Immersion Program provides students with academic instruction, reading assistance, enrichment experiences, mentoring, and tutoring. Peter Paul operates by serving the whole child: ensuring students have the tools and resources to perform at high academic levels, participate in enrichment activities, are fed healthy meals, and receive transportation to and from their program site each day. This wraparound care is essential to our students' success. A total of 266 students attended the after school program at Peter Paul's five locations across the East End in 2018-19, including the Central location on North 22nd Street:

1. Fairfield Court: Opened 2012
2. George Mason Elementary School: Opened 2018
3. Chimborazo Elementary School: Opened 2018
4. Bellevue Elementary School: Opened 2018

Peter Paul's Summer Promise, a component of the Youth Program, runs for approximately eight weeks in the summer months between

June and August. The program contains an academic component each morning, with structured reading time, lunch, and recreation/field trips in the afternoon. Current best practices (as determined by the Afterschool Alliance and the National Center on Afterschool and Summer Enrichment) call for a strong summer program to follow and complement a strong after school program. This ongoing engagement during the summer helps build on academic progress and prevent summer learning loss. A total of 176 students in grades 2-12 attended the 2018 Summer Promise at either Peter Paul Central or Fairfield Court Elementary school.

WHO WE SERVE

Demand for our program increases each year, and with increased funding for the Youth Program we had the incredible opportunity to expand to three new schools last year: George Mason, Chimborazo, and Bellevue Elementary Schools. This growth expanded our student capacity, which helps us work towards our goal of serving 40% of the population in our designated community. The graph on the next page shows this tremendous growth!

YOUTH PROGRAM

ALIGNMENT WITH SCHOOLS

It is incredibly important that our students benefit from a collaborative educational system, so the academic component of our program ties into the Richmond Public Schools (RPS) academic day. Peter Paul partners with RPS to facilitate the sharing of testing data, which ensures both school day and after school teachers are using the same data and benchmarks to help students achieve growth. Peter Paul teachers use this testing data to craft individualized academic plans for each student: the Peter Paul Educational Plan (PPEP). Teachers, students, and families check in throughout the year to track progress against the PPEP.

Teacher feedback also shows the impact of Peter Paul programs on the regular academic day. At our two newest sites, Bellevue and Chimborazo Elementary Schools, public school teachers were surveyed about the impact of the Peter Paul program on their students during the school day.

- For 90% of Peter Paul students, teachers reported that homework completion and class participation improved.
- For 87% of Peter Paul students, teachers reported that academic performance improved.
- For 65% of Peter Paul students, teachers reported that classroom behavior improved.
- For 77% of Peter Paul students, teachers reported that motivation to learn improved.

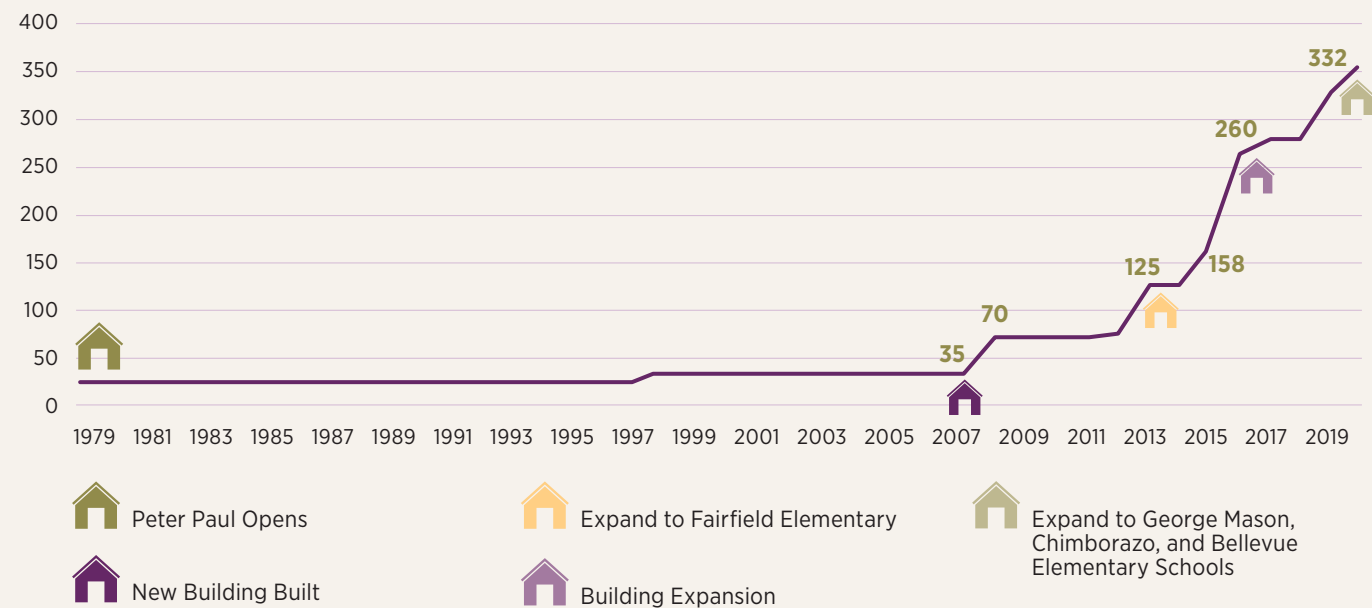

The academic consistency from in-school to after-school combined with the holistic care our students receive leads to tremendous success, as evidenced by last year's 89% program completion rate, a 5% increase from the prior year.

STUDENT BELIEFS, BEHAVIOR, AND ATTENDANCE

Each year Peter Paul conducts an anonymous student survey, the Survey of Academic and Youth Outcomes, which gathers honest thoughts, feelings, and anecdotes from our students. Results from recent survey data is include on the next page.

STUDENTS SERVED BY PETER PAUL EACH FISCAL YEAR

YOUTH PROGRAM

After a year working with the The Origin Project, reflecting, writing, and practicing public speaking, Peter Paul students shared their work with the community and celebrated The Origin Project's Book Five Unveiling at VCU's Institute of Contemporary Art.

Peter Paul joined NextUp RVA and RPS to celebrate the 21st Century Learning Grants from the Virginia Department of Education for the expansion of high-quality afterschool programs for elementary and middle school students across the city.

Middle school students with Reynolds Community College and the Richmond Technical Center (RTC) throughout the year participate in a series of career exploration sessions focused on engineering, robotics, sports medicine, and nursing, among others.

- 70% of students indicated that coming to Peter Paul has helped them do better in school
- 70% of students indicated that coming to Peter Paul has helped them do better in math
- 60% of students indicated that coming to Peter Paul has helped them to read more often
- 87% of students indicated they have a lot of good friends at Peter Paul
- 90% indicated there is an adult at Peter Paul who they listen to and will respect
- 97% reported that they definitely or probably will be successful in high school
- 93% reported that they definitely or probably will go to college

We also keep track of school attendance each quarter because consistent school attendance is critical for student success. We follow Richmond Public Schools' definition of good attendance and chronic absenteeism: "good attendance" means that a student is not missing 18+ days of school for any reason. In 2018-19, 90% of Peter Paul students had good attendance.

Our Youth Program addresses the needs of our students by providing youth in grades 2-12 with an educational enrichment program that helps them succeed, ultimately developing into positive contributors to their communities. The cohort of Peter Paul students who stayed with the program through high school are thriving and doing wonderful things! Many stay in touch with their peers and staff from Peter Paul, and a number even come back and work as program assistants and classroom teachers during Summer Promise.

ENGAGE THE FAMILY

Peter Paul families come from all over the East End community. Our parents are their child’s first and best teachers and equal partners with our Peter Paul staff.

In addition to partnering with Peter Paul on their children’s educational journeys, our parents are able to access a number of resources through the Promise Family Network. Our parents are their child’s first and best teachers and true partners in all we do. Parents who join the Network enhance their ability to create healthy family environments through relationship building and a positive peer-to-peer support. Hallmark to being a Network member is committing to the creation and execution of a family plan. Parents are also encouraged to participate in various workshop and learning opportunities. One of those opportunities is Strengthening Families, a nationally recognized 7-week program. As of spring 2019, eight cohorts (58 parents) are active in or have graduated from the network).

What does membership in the Promise Family Network look like?

To understand a parent’s journey with Peter Paul and the Promise Family Network, let’s look at Diana’s* story:

Diana has four school-aged children all with various Individualized Education Program (IEP) needs, and she manages to stay involved with each of their in-school and after-school activities. She attended one of our family engagement events this year, an IEP information session, which was incredibly helpful in providing resources and advice. She speaks regularly with peers in the Promise Family Network, and was able to secure counseling services through these connections and connections with Peter Paul staff. This year, Diana began volunteering with the Community Action Network, and has increased her participation at Peter Paul events. Her increased involvement and networking led to a huge recent milestone – Diana now has a full-time job doing what she loves! Now a full-time employee with benefits, her next steps are working with the Promise Family Network to receive support around budgeting.

PROMISE FAMILY NETWORK

“I like that my children are in a safe place where they can learn and experience all the different activities this wonderful program offers.”

-Peter Paul Parent

In FY19:

- 52 parents were active in the Promise Family Network.
- 19 new parents joined the Network and are completing tangible family goals.
- Families in the Promise Family Network achieved 31 concrete goals.
- 36% of families in the Promise Family Network have completed at least one family goal.

We understand that opportunities to connect are vital to providing a nurturing and thriving environment for our parents. As part of our efforts to engage the family, we host a number of events each year in the categories of parent education, family fun, student showcases, and community events. Last year, we hosted 51 family engagement events across our 5 locations. 69% of students had a parent or guardian attend a voluntary family-engagement activity, while several attend on a regular basis and incorporate our events as a part of their regular schedule.

NUMBER OF GOALS COMPLETED IN FISCAL YEAR 2019

EMPOWER THE COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY ACTION NETWORK

To make sure members of the community are invested and involved, Peter Paul has cultivated six Action Teams to support collaborative initiatives in the East End of Richmond. The Community Action Network meets bi-monthly to discuss and problem-solve around the success and well-being of our children and families and the inside-out transformation of the East End community. Last year, 150 unduplicated East End neighbors and service providers attended a CAN meeting.

In 2018 we launched the Annual Member Survey, which allows us to measure what we are doing well and what we can improve upon, while gathering member feedback, attitudes, and belief. According to the 2018-19 CAN Partner Survey:

- 79% of partner organizations believe they operate in less of a silo than before they joined the CAN.
- 66% of partner organizations believe they have developed authentic connections with East End neighbors as a result of joining the CAN.
- 68% of partner organizations believe they improved the way in which they deliver services as a result of joining the CAN.

“We have been searching for a model for community engagement and found it with CAN activities.”

COMMUNITY ACTION NETWORK

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Peter Paul hosts community events throughout the course of the year to foster information sharing, relationship building, and community dialogue. In FY19, 493 people attended our three community-wide educational events:

- 6th Annual East End Community Field Day
  - Hundreds of children and families came together to have fun, learn from vendors, and build community with each other. Field Day was supported by dozens of community partners, volunteers, and Peter Paul staff.
- What's in Your Basket Info Feast
  - This Info Feast bridged the gap between our community and the health and wellness resources available along the 25th Street and 9 Mile Road corridors. Peter Paul welcomed 130 community members and agencies, and all agencies set up fun, interactive displays with a range of information on health services in our neighborhood.
- Housing Info Feast
  - This event focused on housing in the East End, and included topics ranging from financial literacy to how to be a good neighbor/tenant. Also on display was artwork by both staff and students, and guests were able to enjoy food, prizes, and lots of family fun.

“The CAN allows our organization to be informed on important issues in the East End community where and helps to guide us on how we can provide more service to the area.”

COMMUNITY PROGRAMMING

Several other components of our community outreach include the Senior Citizens Program (in partnership with The Senior Center of Greater Richmond), and Food Distribution (in partnership with FeedMore and St. Peter's Episcopal Church). The Senior Citizens Program is for senior citizens who live in the Peter Paul neighborhood and are 50 years of age or older. Participants can attend twice per week on Tuesdays and Thursdays to enjoy lunch, chair exercises, and a variety of activities, including field trips, speakers, Bingo and more. The goal is to keep senior citizens engaged and allow for social opportunities in the community. Food Distribution is hosted at St. Peter's Episcopal Church for neighbors of the East End. While offering food for neighbors in need, this program also offers access to information on various services participants may want or need.

“Coming to the CAN has helped me to gain an awareness of the history, needs, strengths, and services already offered. I value the diversity in voice at the meetings to better understand the different perspectives of current programs, challenges and future goals.”

2018-2019 VOLUNTEERS

We are incredibly grateful to our 994 volunteers who provided 7,314 hours of service in 2018-2019! The Independent Sector values this incredible resource in Virginia at $185,995. Peter Paul volunteers create a unifying force amongst their many differences – they all share a commitment to a bright future for Richmond’s East End. The spirit of our volunteers bring hope, generosity, and love for Peter Paul and all of its programs.

We also recognize and thank Rosemary Jones as she transitioned from over a decade as Peter Paul’s Director of Volunteer Services to retirement at the end of the fiscal year. Rosemary brought dedication, compassion, and kindness to Peter Paul each and every day while working with countless staff, students, and volunteers; we wish her well in her next chapter of life. We are thrilled to welcome Mike Brown to Peter Paul as the new Director of Volunteer Services, who has spent his career working with volunteers in various capacities. Interested in volunteering? Contact Mike at mbrown@peterpauldevcenter.org.
